(b) Provide a brief summary of the corporate governance policy that the board of directors has adopted. Please emphasize the policy/ies relative to the treatment of all shareholders, respect for the rights of minority shareholders and of other stakeholders, disclosure duties, and board responsibilities.

The Company's corporate governance policies and practices are based on its Manual of Corporate Governance adopted and approved on August 29, 2002. The Board of Directors and Management, employees and shareholders believe that corporate governance is a necessary component of what constitutes sound strategic business management and will therefore undertake every effort necessary to create awareness within the organization as soon as possible. The Board, in complying with the principles of corporate governance, shall be assisted by the 2 Board Committees, apart from the Executive Committee. Each of the Audit Committee and Compensation & Nominations Committee has their specific functions as provided in the CG Manual. Details of said policies and principles are stated under Article 2.2.2. – Board Committees.

² Reckoned from the election immediately following January 5, 2015

Shareholders' Benefit and Rights of Minority Shareholders

The company recognizes that the most cogent proof of good corporate governance is that which is visible to the eyes of its investors. The following provisions are issued for the guidance of all internal and external parties concerned, as governance covenant between the company and all its investors:

- a. Voting Right - Shareholders shall have the right to elect, remove and replace directors and vote on certain corporate acts in accordance with the Corporation Code.
- b. Pre-emptive Right – Pre-emptive right was denied to the stockholders in the Articles of Incorporation. The Articles of Incorporation shall lay down the specific rights and powers of shareholders with respect to the particular shares they hold, all of which shall be protected by law so long as they shall not be in conflict with the Corporation Code.
- c. Power of Inspection - All shareholders shall be allowed to inspect corporate books and records including minutes of Board meetings and stock registries in accordance with the Corporation Code and shall be furnished with annual reports, including financial statements, without cost or restrictions.
- d. Right to Information - The Shareholders shall be provided, upon request, with periodic reports, which disclose personal and professional information about the directors and officers and certain other matters such as their holdings of the company's shares, dealings with the company, relationships. The minority shareholders shall be granted the right to propose the holding of a meeting, and the right to propose items in the agenda of the meeting, provided the items are for legitimate business purposes. The minority shareholders shall have access to any and all information relating to matters for which the management is accountable for and to those relating to matters for which the management shall include such information and, if not included, then the minority shareholders shall be allowed to propose to include such matters in the agenda of stockholders' meeting, being within the definition of "legitimate purposes".
- e. Right to Dividends - Shareholders shall have the right to receive dividends subject to the discretion of the Board. The company shall be compelled to declare dividends when its retained earnings shall be in excess of 100% of its paid-in capital stock, except: a) when justified by definite corporate expansion projects or programs approved by the Board or b) when the corporation is prohibited under any loan agreement with any financial institution or creditor, whether local or foreign, from declaring dividends without its consent, and such consent has not been secured; or c) when it can be clearly shown that such retention is necessary under special circumstances obtaining in the corporations such as when there is a need for special reserve for probable contingencies.
- f. Appraisal Right - The shareholders' shall have appraisal right or the right to dissent and demand payment of the fair value of their shares in the manner provided for under Section 82 of the Corporation Code of the Philippines, under any of the following circumstances:
 - In case any amendment to the articles of incorporation has the effect of changing or restricting the rights of any stockholders or class of shares, or of authorizing preferences in any respect superior or those of outstanding shares of any class, or of extending or shortening the term of corporate existence;
 - In case of sale, lease, exchange, transfer, mortgage, pledge or other disposition of all or substantially all of the corporate property and assets as provided in the Corporation Code; and
 - In case of merger or consolidation.

Reportorial or Disclosure System

The reports or disclosures required under this Manual shall be prepared and submitted to the Commission by the responsible Committee or officer through the Corporation's Compliance Officer. All material information, i.e., anything that could potentially affect share price, shall be publicly disclosed. Such information shall include earnings results, acquisition or disposal of assets, board changes, related party transactions, shareholdings of directors and changes to ownership. Other information that shall always be disclosed includes remuneration (including stock options) of all directors and senior management corporate strategy, and off balance sheet transactions.

All disclosed information shall be released via the approved stock exchange procedure for company announcements as well as through the annual report. The Board shall commit at all times to fully disclose material information dealings. It shall cause the filing of all required information for the interest of the stakeholders.

Board Responsibilities

Compliance with the principles of good corporate governance shall start with the Board of Directors. It shall be the Board's responsibility to foster the long-term success of the Corporation and secure its sustained competitiveness in a manner consistent with its fiduciary responsibility, which it shall exercise in the best interest of the Corporation, its shareholders and other stakeholders. The Board shall conduct itself with utmost honesty and integrity in the discharge of its duties, functions and responsibilities.

(c) How often does the Board review and approve the vision and mission?

The Management reviews annually or as often as required the Company's vision and mission and submits the same to the Board for confirmation.

The CEO shall see to it that the budget approved by the Board and all orders and resolutions are carried into effect. He is in-charged with the creation of an effective organizational structure, business units and the development of executive personnel. He shall perform other duties as may be delegated to him by the Board of Directors.
Accountabilities	Ensure that the meetings of the Board are held in accordance with the By-Laws. Determine and supervise the preparation of agenda for the meetings in coordination with the CEO, the Management and the Directors. (Art. IV, Sec. 23, Amended By-Laws)	The CEO provides overall leadership to the Corporation. He is responsible for the development, design, operation and improvement of the systems. (Art. IV, Sec. 22, Cert. of Amendment of the Amended By-Laws)
Deliverables	Policy directions aligned to Company goals, annual plan and targets.	Ensure the accomplishment of the vision and mission of the Corporation in partnership with the Board.

- 3) Explain how the board of directors plans for the succession of the CEO/Managing Director/President and the top key management positions?

To ensure that successors will contribute in the formulation of sound corporate strategies and policies, the Nomination Committee reviews and evaluates the qualifications of all the nominees. Only those competent, professional, honest and highly motivated officials are appointed.

- 4) Other Executive, Non-Executive and Independent Directors

Does the company have a policy of ensuring diversity of experience and background of directors in the board? Please explain.

To Aid in complying with the principles of good corporate governance, a nomination committee was created to do pre-screen all nominated officers to become a member of the board of directors, all must comply in accordance with sets of qualifications and disqualifications requirements.

Does it ensure that at least one non-executive director has an experience in the sector or industry the company belongs to? Please explain.

Based on the selection of criteria in addition to the qualifications for membership in the Board provided for in the Corporation code, Securities Regulation Code and other relevant laws, the Board may provide for additional qualifications which include, among others, the following: Membership in good standing in relevant industry, business or professional organizations; and Previous business experience.

Define and clarify the roles, accountabilities and deliverables of the Executive, Non-Executive and Independent Directors:

	Executive	Non-Executive	Independent Director
Role	Manual on Corporate Governance It shall be the Board's responsibility to foster the long-term success of the Corporation and secure its sustained competitiveness in a manner consistent with its fiduciary responsibility, which it shall exercise in the best interest of the Corporation, its shareholders and other stakeholders. The Board shall conduct itself with utmost honesty and integrity in the discharge of its duties, functions and responsibilities.

Deliverables

General Responsibility

A director's office is one of trust and confidence. He shall act in a manner characterized by transparency, accountability and fairness.

Specific Duties and Functions

To insure a high standard of best practice for the Corporation and its stakeholders, the Board shall:

- Install a process of selection to ensure a mix of competent directors and officers
- Determine the Corporation's purpose, its vision and mission and strategies to carry out its objectives.
- Ensure that the Corporation complies with all relevant laws, regulations and codes of best business practices;
- Identify the Corporation's major and other stakeholders and formulate a clear policy on communicating or relating with them through an effective investor relations program;
- Adopt a system of internal checks and balances;
- Identify key risk areas and key performance indicators and monitor these factors with due diligence;
- Properly discharge Board functions by meeting regularly. Independent views during Board meetings shall be given due consideration and all such meetings shall be duly minuted; and
- Keep Board authority within the powers of the institution as prescribed in the Articles of Incorporation, By-Laws and in existing laws, rules and regulation.

Duties and Responsibilities of a Director

A director shall have the following duties and responsibilities:

- To conduct fair business transactions with the Corporation and to ensure that personal interest does not bias Board decisions;
- To devote time and attention necessary to properly discharge his duties and responsibilities;
- To act judiciously;
- To exercise independent judgment;
- To have a working knowledge of the statutory and regulatory requirements affecting the Corporation, including the contents of its Articles of Incorporation and By-Laws, the requirements of the Commission, and where applicable, the requirements of other regulatory agencies.
- To observe confidentiality;
- To ensure the continuing soundness, effectiveness and adequacy of the Corporation's control environment.

Provide the company's definition of "independence" and describe the company's compliance to the definition.

An independent director means a person who, apart from his fees and shareholdings, is independent of management and free from any business or other relationship, which could, or could reasonably be perceived, materially interfere with the exercise of independent judgment in carrying out his responsibilities as an independent director of the Corporation. (As amended on 23 June 2005)

Does the company have a term limit of five consecutive years for independent directors? If after two years, the company wishes to bring back an independent director who had served for five years, does it limit the term for no more than four additional years? Please explain.

No separate policy. However, the Company is compliant with SEC Memorandum Circular no. 9 series of 2011, which provides the Term Limits for Independent Directors (ID). It requires that effective January 02, 2012, an ID shall serve for 5 years to be counted from January 2012 and shall have a cooling period of 2 years to be elected for another 5 years.

5) Changes in the Board of Directors (Executive, Non-Executive and Independent Directors)

(a) Resignation/Death/Removal
